Personal Statement:

AGBU would like to know more about you and what you would bring to the Media Internship Program. To paint a clearer picture of you as an internship candidate, please answer each of the questions below in essay form.

Responses to each question must be typed. Please upload all responses in one file.

- Why are you choosing to apply to the AGBU Media Internship Program? Please describe the characteristics that make you a strong candidate for this program. (maximum 250 words)
- What are your desired career interests and how will this internship program help you achieve your goals? (maximum 250 words)
- Please describe your past involvement in AGBU programs, if any. In what ways will you contribute to the AGBU community as an alumnus/a of this program? (maximum 250 words)

Please Note:

- If your application is selected, this does not guarantee an internship match. Acceptance to the program is conditional upon a match between the intern and a host company.
- Interns may be required to submit supplemental applications and/or interview for certain internship opportunities to confirm a match.
- All interns must attend weekly group meetings/activities. Interns will be notified of the dates for these mandatory meetings well in advance.
