CONTEST RULES

Entries will be judged by the author, Laura Michael, and the AGBU Summer Book Club Committee.

1. All contestants must live in the Western District (all states west of the Mississippi River).
2. All contestants must be enrolled in 2nd, 3rd, 4th, or 5th grade as of September 2018. Each grade will be judged separately and one winner will be selected from each grade, for a total of four contest winners.
3. Contestants are encouraged to read the book and write a word response addressing the following prompt: Who is someone who has made a difference in your community or life? What did that person do? How did they make a difference? Why was their work important?
4. Entries must be typed in plain 12-point font (Calibri, Arial, or Times New Roman), double-spaced and no more than 1,000 words.
5. Each entry must have a cover page with the title of the work, the author's name, grade, school, city, state of school and the word count (example provided on last page).
6. The entry must use at least one relevant quote from the book.
7. Participants may not submit in groups. Only one participant per submission is allowed. All entries are final. No revisions will be accepted.
8. The completed application and the original written piece must be submitted together.
9. All submissions must be received by Friday, August 24, 2018 at 5:00 PM PST.

By checking this box, I understand my child's photo and writing submission will be used on current and future marketing materials, social media posts, and other outlets for fundraising and/or promotional purposes. I irrevocably authorize AGBU Western District to use photographs, quotations, and likeness in any and all forms, and agree that neither I nor the Contestant shall be entitled to a compensation for such use.

By submitting to the Contest, the entrant agrees to abide by all Contest Rules.
